FOREWORD

I N this, our Annual of 1925, we have earnestly endeavored to maintain the high standard of excellency for which our class has always stood. We have put forth our utmost efforts in trying to picture the true high school life, in its many different phases. While we may not have reached the par excellence for which we have striven, we trust that you will accept these pages in the same kindly spirit in which they are presented.

IN MEMORIAM

To Verlie Areingdale

A FLOWER grows, blooms in all its beauty and usefulness; then, for some unaccountable reason, wilts and dies. It lived for a purpose, and although stricken with death before its mission was fully completed, it made the world a more pleasant place in which to live. Although never rewarded or much noticed by the many, yet it stood up bravely with a smile and an undying desire to help beautify this world. So it has been with our dear friend and school-mate, Verlie Areingdale, who has passed on. Her life has been one of service and help in making this world and school a better place to live in. We are sure that it has been benefited by her having lived with us, even though for so short a time.

DEDICATION

To Mrs. Frank

TO you, whose friendship and guidance has followed us through four of the happiest years of our lives; whose kindly presence is a joy to us; to you, whose untiring efforts for us and for the welfare of our class have been cheerfully and unselfishly spent; we, the Seniors of 1925, sincerely dedicate our Annual.

SCHOOL LIFE

O. H. S. SONG

FIRST VERSE

*Ottumwa High will always be our school,
And we'll ever love her true,
We'll sing of her,
We'll yell for her,
And my, what won't we do,
We'll put her on the map,
And see that she stands pat,
For we love her true, we do.*

CHORUS

*North-side, South-side, and all around the town,
We'll all join in together to root for O. H. S.
In football, basketball, and every kind of sport,
We'll cheer them on to victory,
For dear old O. H. S.
Rah! Rah! Rah! for Ottumwa.*

SECOND VERSE

*In all our games you'll always find us there,
To help the boys along,
We'll yell and sing,
And back our teams,
And let them know we're there.
We have lots of pep,
And so you can always bet,
That we will win the game.*

THIRD VERSE

*Opposing teams will always say,
When Ottumwa starts to play,
(For) Ottumwa works,
(And) Ottumwa plays,
And always knows the game.
They won't know how it came,
That Ottumwa won the game,
But we'll just laugh and say:*

OUR MAGIC SQUARE

383	384	395	376	387
380	386	372	393	394
382	403	379	390	371
389	375	381	392	388
391	377	398	374	385

By adding the figures in the above square vertically, horizontally and diagonally, the total of 1925 can be obtained. Try it and see.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. H. E. BLACKMAR
Superintendent of Schools

For eleven years Mr. Blackmar has faithfully worked to make the Ottumwa schools rank among the highest in the state. It is largely through his efforts that we have a chance to complete our high school course in this wonderful building.

JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION
Friday, May 29

TWENTY-FIVES

*We are gathered here together,
Twenty-fives—twenty-fives,
For no matter what the weather,
Twenty-fives—twenty-fives,
We will always be true blue,
Stand by each other through and through,
Doing well what e'er we do,
Twenty-fives—twenty-fives,*

*Now O. H. S. we're leaving,
Twenty-fives—twenty-fives,
But our hearts to her are cleaving,
Twenty-fives—twenty-fives,
Each one following his own art,
We in a new life must start,
With the friends of school days part,
Twenty-fives—twenty-fives.*

*Four years we've worked and fought,
Twenty-fives—twenty-fives,
And we know 'twas not for naught,
Twenty-fives—twenty-fives,
We have played and won the game,
We have gained a lot of fame,
Oft with pride we hear the name,
Twenty-fives—twenty-fives,
Oh with joy we hear the name,
Twenty-fives—twenty-fives.*

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1925

Backward, turn backward, O time in thy flight,
Take me to Ottumwa High School again just for tonight;
'Twas in nineteen twenty one, as I do recall,
That our class entered as Freshmen, and green were we all,
But we did one convincing deed to prove we were wise—
From the faculty we chose Mrs. Frank, our class to advise.
We struggled that year at our lessons so hard,
So at least once in our life we could take home a good card.

And as a reward at the end of that year,
We had a Freshman party—har! har!—give a cheer.
Now this party was held at the Y. M. C. A.
And as for dues, each a quarter did pay;
Then after the party we all did the dishes,
And parted at last with hearty good wishes.
Next, Sophomore year, and such sophistication!
The Seniors were tormented by many an hallucination,
We organized our class in regular style,
And "K" Hengen as treasurer hoarded our pile.
Duck Taylor by some sly trick of his pen,
Kept records of our class—which met now and then,
Then as class president, we selected Bob,
But because of his grades, had to give up his job.
We were going along serenely when we suddenly discovered
That our class was without a yell—Like old Mother Hubbard.
So Ed, Ross and George retired for a time,
And brought forth this yell that beats all other rhyme:
Rip, ring, rang, rung,
Zip, zing, zang, zung,
Eat 'em dead, eat 'em alive,
Nineteen hundred and twenty-five!
And with this same yell the old high did ring!
'Twas the twenty-five's symbol, what pep did it bring!
Then the grandest of all, in the spring, our dance,
Where pupils and instructors together did prance,

Our favorite Gus Nation, like a regular sport,
 With the aid of some girls, made punch of some sort.
 And lo! we were Juniors—we thrilled at the name,
 And worthy Bill Brunk was president of the same.
 In Bill's absence, Ed Bonnifield did serve.
 While Charles Funk recorded facts with courage and nerve.
 Ralph Ramsey was chosen as treasurer that year,
 And handled our green-backs, so scarce and so dear.
 We also had members on the famed Student Council,
 They were Sterner, Parks, Herrick, Brunk, Lowe—that's a mouthful!
 On the football field we surely did shine,
 With Reeky, Parks, Sweeney and Groves in the line;
 And if I remember all the boys exactly right,
 Swenson, Leonard and Bowne were there in the fight.
 We also did claim some honors on the mat,
 We have Booth, Harris and Chickering to give thanks to for that.
 And for our debating we find Ed and Ross,
 These silver tongued orators made the Judge come across.
 Then to cap the climax of a happy, successful year,
 We gave the Junior-Senior Prom as summer drew near.
 The play we pulled off—a marvel we'll vote it!
 Joe Miller was manager, and also he wrote it.
 Flora Knight as a flapper, was really a scream,
 While Bettina as Rose was as fair as a dream.
 From frequent comments we chanced to hear,
 That dance was a success—we had nothing to fear.
 What ho! What ho! We were Seniors! Heigho!
 The peppiest class in the high school, yea ho!
 Bill Brunk was again with the presidency honored,
 And Irvin Groves consented to keep the money we callored.
 Al Edgington took Chuck's place and all the meetings recorded,
 And Parks filled in for Bill when necessity afforded.
 Reeky now captain of our team did become,
 And we added to our victories, one by one.
 The Argus Annual Staff was losing much sleep,
 To make this Argus the best one to keep.
 Vera Sterner, Joe Miller and Ivan were chiefs,
 While numerous committees gave aid and relief.

The Argus Newspaper was edited by Ruth Lowe,
It would have been bigger, but there was a sad slack of "dough."
Two Dramatic club plays were presented that year,
And Miss Bateman directed, and shed more than one tear.
Margie was Eva and Joe, Uncle Horace,
And they gained much fame in their acting, of course.
Then "Duley" was given on the first of May,
And Winnie Mahaffey was the star, they say.
Bill, Ed, Harlan, Bob and Joe,
Were others in the cast, you know.
Commencement time was drawing near,
But the '25 Seniors had nothing to fear;
To Mrs. Frank we owe much praise,
For her kindly guidance through our high school days.
Can it really be true that those dear days are gone,
And nought is left but these memories fond?
Backward, turn backward, O time in thy flight,
And take me to Ottumwa High School, just for tonight.

CLASS PROPHECY

WHILE looking in the crystal globe, twenty-five years having passed, the Senior Class of 1925, O. H. S. was found living in the Western country, in a lonely deserted spot, gathered into a communistic village.

They were a jealous bunch but I soon espied an old bewhiskered patriarch who seemed to be deciding a dispute. I was not surprised to find that it was Bill Brunk who still seemed to have the most influence when it came to managing affairs. The girls did not seem to have much authority but there were a few who fell in line for the jobs in the community kitchen. It was near noon and things were beginning to move fast. Merle Wine was seen bossing her very efficient crew of "hashslingers"—Lillian Moore, Helen Meadows, Willa McClure, Maurine Gallagher, Leora Given, Vera McElroy, Elizabeth Baum and Alice Trenneman.

It was hard to tell just who was at the head of the "water brigade," but it looked like Ben Bowne had assumed the most authority. Here, sweating in the sun were Don Gibbons, Tom Whalen, Vest Giltner, Charles Horan, John Styre and Carl McInerney all filling the water barrels from the spring.

There was work for all, yet there was some settlement recreation. Lawrence Delano had organized an orchestra which played for the meals and evenings now and then. Roger Breckenridge, Edgar Brower, Nyla Kenny, Herbert Brody, Charles Strang and Flora Knight composed the group.

People were seen coming from the fields and work-houses to the unique homes, to get ready for dinner. They were all working for the same "pot," each carrying their implements. The "hay tossers" were in the lead—Bernhardt Diehn, Lewis Chickering, Francis Kaiser, Harvey Landon, Robert Matthew and Vivian Manroe, followed closely by the "weed pullers"—George Malen, Granville Pownall, Dale McCullough and Lawrence Gardner, all happy and contented.

Usually the meals were good but on this particular day Esther Miller, one of the cooks, had become so engrossed in imparting some news to another of the cooks that the potatoes were badly burned.

While all were settled peacefully at their meal, a messenger, who upon closer observation proved to be Tilman Harry, burst in upon the dining hall crying, "The Revolutionists are coming! The Revolutionists are coming!"

A grand riot followed. The population of the entire colony burst out doors and were confronted by the announced Revolutionists. There were five of them, and I gazed in consternation as their identity was revealed to me—Edward Bonni-field, dressed in red flannels led the group, closely followed by George Shane with an elephant's tusk, Ross Weigand with a book on hypnotism, James Barnes with a package of licorice cigarettes and Ed Parker with an I. W. W. sign boldly hanging around his neck completed the group.

I didn't see how this small group could carry on any sort of a revolution, but their abilities proved unlimited. Miguel Reynolds, who acted as Chief Justice of the Village with Ralph Ramsey his assistant, were ordered to seize the Revolutionists and bear them to prison walls. Three of them were easily subdued and slunk away into the corner. Not so with James Barnes. His old-time "spirit of '25" flared up and in ringing tones he called out, "Away with ye, vile cowards, I spy a maiden youder whom I fain would have for my own." With these words, he dashed through the crowd and while everyone was completely stunned, swept down from his horse, snatched up Gladys Marshall in his arms and was off. Just then a thundering of hoofs was heard and around the corner came Harlan Parks, leading his famous cavalry.

Needless to say, the kidnapper was easily overtaken and sent with the other conspirators to prison. Later I saw they had been banished from the colony in disgrace, a most horrible punishment.

After all of this excitement, things calmed down a bit. I suddenly saw clouds of smoke coming out of the windows of a nearby house—was it a fire? No. Soon Vera Sterner came walking out of the front door and I knew it was merely incense. In her wake was Joe Miller and in his hand he carried a marriage license. I believed an elopement to be afoot, but far be it from me to foil the plans.

A little later at the home of the communistic minister—Vernon Stagner—I saw the wedding taking place with Bettina Inskip as bridesmaid and Bob Ferguson as best man.

In the orchard of the little village sat Ruby Holton, with poetry which she had been writing strewn about her. Suddenly a stately fellow clad in golf trousers and golf socks of brilliant hue, his tawny locks waving in the breeze, appeared from behind a tree and placing his hands over her eyes, playfully dropped a kiss upon her brow. I could hardly believe my eyes when I did recognize him as Cornelius Murphy. However, knowing Ruby's shyness as I did, I looked away until they both had disappeared over the hill.

That evening a concert was held in the park and Thelma Toms gave several solos accompanied on the Violin by Lawrence DeLano. Lawrence Gooch as the comedian made quite a hit. A group of chorus girls—Kathryn Melick, Wilma Roth, Grace Stockberger, Alice Shepherd, Lorretta McInerney and Dorothy Corrick—gave several clever little numbers. Later I saw Dorothy Corrick getting into a Ford Coupe. From that I drew my own conclusions—you may do the same.

In the dance hall of the village of which, by the way, Ed Silk was manager, Dorothy Wayland was giving a formal dance to which the whole population had been looking forward for the past year. Here Margaret Madden and Harlan Parks were hopping around and also Charles and Weltha. Stationed around the room at various punch bowls I noticed Phylis Abernathy, Ruth Atwood, Claudine Fletcher, Fred Blount, Marjorie Bowen, Tom Hardy, Ivan Brooks, Mary Carr, Bernice Clabby, Thomas Clark, Wilma Cox, Nellie Cruickshank, Margaret Dayton, Francis Ewing, Arthur Dimmit, Vernon Gossage, Dorothy Haley and Lynn Harness. I do not recall that any of these had been heavy drinkers in their school days, but then—times have changed.

At the end of the room Earl Weldon seemed to be taking a picture of the group. At least I heard him say, "Folks, this is serious, it isn't funny."

Next I directed my attention to the movie where I beheld Catherine Mulcahy, Helen Nelson, Dorothy Pearson, John Peterson, Beulah Howell, Agnes Ramsey, Gladys Reinier, Helen Miller, Norman Swenson, Thomas Snyder and Orlee Spilman all seated in the bald-headed row, devouring peanuts excitedly, while they watched the picture which proved to be a serial with Alex Stewart, supported by Louise Suechting. The picture was, "The Flatter the Plate, the Fewer the Soup."

In the most tragic part, a little boy began to clap excitedly and to create such a disturbance that Harold Stocker had to come from the ticket office and ask the little fellow to leave. I was quite surprised to see Darlene scolding Ralph, Jr. soundly as she lead him out.

The morning after the night before I saw Alice Edgington, Ivyle Peck and Gertrude Tyler leading the entire population in calisthenics in a large field nearby. Ede Wilson stood by supervising the work with Paul Thorne close by her side.

Immediately after this ceremony Charles Leonard and Coxy Warne went out and called in the cows. K. Hengen, Ruth Lowe, Edgar Brower, Lawrence Reedquist, Helen O'Hara, Harry Mauck, Bertha Martin, Margaret Cooper, Blanche Davis, Minta Miles, John Paul Jones, Frances Kirkpatrick and Ed Love grabbed milk pails and went out to milk.

Trailing in with their buckets full, some higher than others, the little line trailed toward an old dilapidated barn where Margaret Burns, Christine Stiles, Bernard Booth, "Skeet" Sauers, Howard Wittenmeyer and Faye Rusch labored over the old fashioned hand separators.

In the midst of this work a terrible shriek was heard. Everyone rushed to the corner of the barn where they found Joe Wagner rolling over and over, apparently in great agony.

Upon questioning him they found out that one of the cows had kicked him. Margaret L. Herrick, panic-stricken, ran for the doctor, while John Murray, a manly chap, tanned by out-door life, easily swung Joe to his strong shoulders and carried him into the house. Dr. Ted Lambertson and her nurse, Lillian Jones, hurried over and rendered first aid. Nevertheless, Joe was delirious for a week muttering incoherent words, meaningless to all but the members of his '25 Virgil class, about "nymphs chirping from lofty summits."

I began to wonder where Phillip Spiwak had drifted and found he had left the colony after inheriting a great fortune and that he now was peddling neckties in Canada.

Clarke Taylor was about the busiest man in town. He was building a new aeroplane, modeled from force of habit over a Ford. He seemed to be very much in demand from a feminine view-point, as about him were grouped Pauline Chamberlain, Maple Ward, Gerada Zaffle, Bertha Potter and Ruth Morrison, all trying to help him.

Emmet Mowry, of course, edited the weekly paper and his assistants were Marie McCoy, Adelaide Gossage and Mary Forsythe.

Helen Trent was standing outside the gate of Martha Welch's rose garden, gossiping with Ruth Gibson and Helen Hagberg who were old maids by this time and lived together in a stone house covered with pumpkin vines.

A few old timers were beginning to get rather radical and started an old fad—bobbed hair. Ida Pool and Bertha Logan were the first to fall before the temptations of the demon. Marguerite McFadden and Edna Romerman following after much deliberation of to do or not to do. This was looked upon with disgust by some of the more conservative type as Lucille Harkins, Genevieve Hall, Dorothy Gookin, Pauline Clark and Winnie Mahaffey, all fighting it with their influential orations on "The Sinful Four."

Suddenly my crystal began to lose its observatory power and through the haze I could dimly see the remaining members of the 25's, but the colony gradually faded away and I was staring at a small glass ball. And from that day to this naught has been heard of the little colony of the nineteen hundred and twenty-five's.

CLASS WILL

WE, the Senior class of 1925, with all due sanity of mind and in truly good faith have, with all the solemnity and dignity befitting such an occasion, drawn up our last will and testament. We hereby announce it publicly thus making all wills written heretofore null and void.

To the faculty who have guided us carefully over the rough places and encouraged us at all times we leave our unbounded appreciation and gratitude.

To the Freshman Class to whom we claim the most distant relationship, we leave for old times sake, the right to attend the Ottumwa High School solely for the purpose of acquiring knowledge.

To the Sophomore Class we leave, in remembrance of our own peppy days of 23-24, the opportunity to pursue with vigor and vim, that elusive, fascinating, that indefinable something, which no class should be without—PEP.

To the Junior Class we bequeath with utmost respect our exalted position as O. H. S. Seniors.

Ed Bonnifield—My sedate dignity to Ed. Tullis

James Barnes—All my extra credits to Clarence McCullough.

Bernard Booth—My angelic actions to Sam Mahon.

Benjamin Bowne—My success with the girls to Oakley Cheever.

Darlene Breckenridge—Ralph Sweeney to Maxine Fullmer.

Ivan Brooks—My twinkling feet to whom?

Rodger Breckenridge—My "Million Dollar Band" to Bailey Webber.

Edgar Brower—My love for gym to Everett Curtiss.

William Brunk—My executive ability to B. Sheehan.

Pauline Chamberlain—Nothing, I take all of my interests with me.

Lewis Chickering—My stature? to Charles Bookin.

Dorothy Corrick—My winning ways to Mary B. Lowenberg.

Thomas Clark—My brevity of stature to Billy Boone.

Margaret Cooper—My boistrousness to Dorothy McGraw.

Geraldine Cramblit—Her flirtatious manners to Pauline Kidd.

Lawrence De Lano—His musical talents to Harry Meir.

Bernhardt Diehn—All of his beauty secrets to "Sis" Lee.

Alice Carlson—My interest for athletics to Immogene Sinclair.

Julia Daggett's curly hair to John Morrison.

Ruth Atwood's goodness to Hugh Doran.

Maurine Gallagher's teaching ability to the faculty.

Robert Kitterman's visitations to the physics lab. room we bequeath to those who need this subject most.

Charles Leonard's name, Benny Potts, we leave to the Courier.

Ruth Lowe's popularity we leave to Megan Rhys.

Vera McElroy's excuses to Bob Lyman.

Loretta McInerney's Ford to Pete Parks.

Robert Matthew's laugh to Don Box.

THE OLYMPIC GAMES

THE Olympic Games of 1932 were held this year in the Harper Stadium (named for Coach Harper of the University of Rutledge), and among the many winners were a great many of the former members of "The Glorious Old Class, Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-six." In a recent issue of the "Courier," whose editor is now Grace Stockberger, a report was given stating that they made a wonderful record. We thought perhaps you would like to hear of some of our victories.

SOPHOMORE

SILENTLY the '27s entered O. H. S. and still more silently progressed as Freshmen. Only this year has the school awakened to find an unusual class of tenth-graders. Plenty of pep, we have shown in every branch of school life. Our class is represented in football, basketball, and in every club. More or less pep we cannot have. For how could we have more and how less?

Our officers are the best in the school and receive the support of the entire class. Every member is a loyal supporter of O. H. S. Therefore we believe that we may rightly be proud of our Sophomore Class!

FRESHMAN

THE Freshman Class has three more years in which to show the students of the High School what it can do. We are represented in the various organizations of the school, such as the Latin Club, Radio Club, and the Spanish Club. We are also interested in the Athletic Teams; as a few of our members are out for football.

The freshman class has a great deal of pep this year, and one of our members, Donald Holley, is a yell leader, and a mighty good one at that. During the Lyceum course a great many tickets were sold, largely by Homer Howell.

Although we have some small members, which is quite natural in a freshman class, such as Dolores Meagher, Walter Monger, Frank Parnell, we also have some huskies.

A great many students are out for declamatory, which shows that they are quite interested in the outcome of the High School in that particular line.

The students showed good judgment in the selection of the class officers. They are very competent members of the class and shall do their best to serve the class in every way possible.

Judging the way we are going now, we Freshmen hope to have a class that the O. H. S. will be proud of by the time 1928 comes.

Freshman Class Officers: GERALD MCGEE, President; ROBERT FOSTER, Vice-President; CLINE GREER, Secretary; NELLIE POLING, Treasurer.

ACTIVITIES

OTTUMWA HIGH SCHOOL

Behold O. H. S., the object of the loyalty of every true student, the source and inspiration of the organizations which are illustrated on the following pages.

THE TORCH CLUB

National Honorary Society founded at Ottumwa High School in 1923.

THE TORCH CLUB

THE Torch Club, a recent organization in the Ottumwa High School, is affiliated with the National Honor Society for Secondary Schools. Members are taken not only on their scholarship, but their character, leadership and loyalty are also considered. Prospective members must have all of these elements embodied in them with a desire to use them, if they expect to attain the place as a member of the Torch Club.

Five members of the faculty elect new members each semester. This year Mrs. Charlotte Frank has served most successfully as sponsor to the club. The members are:

MARGARET COOPER

MARGARET LUCILLE HERRICK

FRANCES HERRMANN

AGNES KENNEDY

JOE MILLER

VERA STERNER

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

THE student council form of self-government in the Ottumwa High School has been carried out successfully during the past year. The purpose of the Council is to form rules to further the best interests of the students. Miss Rose Miller has been a loyal helper and guide to the Council since it first began in 1923, and much of the success is due to her untiring efforts. The members are:

WILLIAM BRUNK, President

WALLACE HARPER, Vice-President

RUTH LOWE, Secretary

VERA STERNER, Treasurer

MORRIS BANNISTER

MILDRED BAUM

DONALD BOX

MARGARET EMERY

MAXINE FULLMER

ROSMA HENGEN

CHARLES LEONARD

JOHN LOWENBERG

CHRISTINE STILES

THE ARGUS ANNUAL

THE Argus Annual is the one factor in the High School which draws the school activities together. The Argus is the representative to other schools of the school life in the Ottumwa High School. It serves to renew to us who graduate our interest in O. H. S. It brings out to us the details of our existence through our sojourn there.

To those outside the school, it brings out forcibly the magnitude of our activities and their nature. It shows to what extent the students participate in each department, and to those who have relatives or friends in the school, it serves as a personal record of each.

This year the Argus Annual Staff, under the faculty supervision of Miss Cecelia Leven, has worked strenuously to make the 1925 Argus Annual the best ever published. Much credit is due Miss Leven, Vera Sterner, Editor-in-Chief; Joe Miller, Managing Editor; and Ivan Brooks, Business Manager, for their untiring efforts and effective management of the student publication.

Miss Patterson, of the Art Department, has helped to make the art work in this book of the highest type possible. The Seniors sell three annuals, and the Juniors one. Only with the cooperation of the entire student body could this issue of the Argus Annual have been published.

Such a publication as the Argus Annual is beyond a doubt the strongest instrument possible to draw the school together into one solid mass and to generate a good school spirit—the kind that lasts.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

THIS year the O. H. S. Dramatic Club has had one of the most successful years in the history of the club. For the first time since the organization of the club, two full evening plays were given: "Adam and Eva" and January 30 and "Dulcy" on May 1. Miss Dorothy K. Bateman is due much credit for her work with the club.

The members of the club are:

THE HI-Y CLUB

THIS year the Hi-Y Club is seven years old, and in these seven years, it has developed a place of high prominence and importance seldom enjoyed by high school organizations. The Hi-Y has taken a place of leadership among the students, and from its ranks have some men intrusted the students with positions of honor and responsibility. Mr. T. A. Baldwin is faculty advisor.

The members of the Hi-Y Club follows:

WILLIAM BRUNK, President
HOMER HARRIS, Vice-President

HERBERT BOX

Third affirmative, fairly shoots his information at the judges. We predict some bulls-eye shots from him before he makes his last speech.

BAILEY WEBBER

Alternative, is trying to prove that oratorical ability runs in a family. We expect to hear from Webber next year.

CARL DAVIES

As third speaker, rounds out the contentions of his team and seeks to hollow out those of his opponents. His one year experience serves him well in this work.

GEORGE SHANE

Affirmative, is giving us his first and last years together. George will show his opponents that an inexperienced man can be extremely logical.

DEBATE REVIEW

AFFIRMATIVE

Our team entered the Iowa Nine and also met two other teams during the season.

Our affirmative team lost on a 2-1 decision February 20 at Washington. March 7, Burlington was defeated by this same team, losing to a 3-0 decision.

BERNARD KAMERICK

First negative speaker, proves the value of extemporaneous speaking in debate. Another letter man for next year's team.

CLARENCE BOOTH

Is one of six new debaters. He seems to believe what he says and should fully develop his ability to convince the judges before his career ends.

EDWARD TULLIS

Second negative, gives his opponents a thoughtful discussion from an historical viewpoint. He will show up well next year.

FRANK MCELDERY

Alternative, is new at the game, but is working hard. We expect real results before McEldery is through.

DEBATE REVIEW

NEGATIVE

February 20 our negative team defeated Washington here 3-0. Three weeks later, March 6, they lost to Fairfield by a 3-0 vote.

A Forensic organization has been formed with the purpose of giving future debaters and others a better knowledge of debate and extemporaneous speaking. This organization has two teams in the field getting experience for next year.

DECLAMATORY

O. H. S. has passed through a highly successful forensic year. More interest has been taken than ever before; a larger number of contestants have participated; the number of contests held in Ottumwa was greater and the quality of the work, at least in comparison with the other schools, was better. For instance:

November 28, the preliminary contest to choose the contestant in the Iowa Nine Contest was held. Of the ten who tried out, Cline Greer took first and John Ramey second in humorous and Archie Fuller first in the oratorical division.

January 15, the girls' preliminary contest was held. Blanche Davis placed first in oratorical, Margaret Madden first in Dramatic and Flora Knight first in the humorous division.

From these six people, Cline and Margaret won the right to represent O. H. S. in the Iowa Nine Contest. Both Margaret and Cline fought their way to the finals where Cline Greer, reading "Biff Perkin's Toboggan Slide," took first in the Boy's Contest held at Iowa City, December 5. At Oskaloosa, Margaret Madden tied for first place but was relegated to third place because of a technicality. She read "Wheels of Time."

This was only the beginning of Ottumwa High's success.

Margaret Madden, Cline Greer and Archie Fuller, entered respectively, the dramatic, humorous and oratorical divisions of the State Contests. Archie Fuller dropped out with a third at the sub-district contest held in Blakesburg. Margaret Madden met her "Waterloo" in the pre-district contest at Hedrick, where she placed third.

Cline Greer continued adding to his string of victories, first at the sub-district, then at the pre-district and district until he reached the final state contest at Atlantic, April 17, where he placed fourth.

ORATORICAL

O. H. S. was represented in the nation-wide Oratorical contests on the United States Constitution by Morris Bannister. The subject of his oration was, "Webster and the Constitution." Bannister was able to reach the state contest held in Des Moines, Iowa, April 22, 1925, before he was forced out of the race—just one step between him and the final contest. Morris has another year in which to make an even better record for himself and his school.

EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING

Perhaps the weakest link in our forensic chain was the extemporaneous speaking contests. Although Miss Oliver and our contestant, Edward Bonnifield, worked hard, there was not enough interest shown by the other students to force the work across big.

Bonnifield placed well toward the top in the two contests he entered and we can well expect better results next year.

MUSIC CONTEST

This year for the first time, O. H. S. sent delegates to the state musical contests. Sabella Toemmes, Francis Kirkpatrick and Lawrence DeLano were our representatives at the district contest which was held at Iowa City, April 11. Here Francis Kirkpatrick took first place among the sopranos, winning the right to represent us at the State Contest. Lawrence won his way to the finals where he was defeated by a girl from Iowa City. Sabella has two more years at O. H. S. and great things are expected of her.

At the State Contest held April 25, Francis Kirkpatrick placed first in Iowa, making one more red mark in Ottumwa High's already most prosperous year.

ATHLETICS

GEORGE YOUNT

For several years George Yount has been the guiding star of athletics in the Ottumwa High School. His success as a coach has been shown by Ottumwa's ranking in the athletic circles of the leading schools of the state in the last few years. During the past season Coach Yount demonstrated his ability to develop fighting teams out of practically new material and to instill in his players a true "Bulldog Spirit."

He is a graduate of Parson's College where he played four years on the football team and was made captain in his senior year. As a result of his efforts and abilities in this sport he landed a berth on the All-State Team as quarterback.

Mr. Yount is not only instrumental as a coach, but also a great influence for cleaner athletics. Sportsmanship lies as the bases for his athletic instruction and he always demands of his athletes not only to play hard but clean and fair.

1925 FOOTBALL TEAM

Middle Row—Page, Coach Yount, Nelson, Shea, Wilson, Reedquist (Capt.), H. Parks, Foster, Groves, Mahon, Clark, Wolf, Swenson, Tiede.

Bottom Row—Ramey, Fisher, Gardner, P. Parks, Mowry, Harper, Sheehan, Hurd, Dupy, Haines, Huey.

CAPTAIN LAWRENCE REEDQUIST "Biggy"

Guard

Upon Biggies' broad shoulders rested the captaincy of the 1924 football team. He gave the game all he had and fought like a demon throughout the season. For the manner in which he lead his team and played, there can be nothing but praise, and his absence will be severely felt next year.

THOMAS CLARK "Tom"

Tackle

Tom at the tackle position was a power on the inexperienced Bulldog line. Although he was not a spectacular player, he was reliable and made an excellent team mate for Wilson. He will not appear in the moleskins next year.

IRVIN GROVES "Irv"

Halfback

Playing his first year of football at halfback, Groves played his position exceptionally well. He also booted a mean kick-off and as a result of his work he received honorable mention on this years All State eleven. This was his last year.

BRUCE ROGERS "Brutus"

End and Half

Fast, shifty and strong, Bruce played a whirlwind of a game at left end. His deadly tackling and ability to snag passes made him a mainstay to the team. He will be back to hold down his berth next year.

JAMES SHEA "Jim"

Center

Jim received the gold football for making the most tackles during the season and also received honorable mention on the All State Team. Strong on defense, an accurate passer and a powerful punter, he made the central position one to be avoided by his opponents. Much is expected of the Irishman next year.

BERNARD SHEEHAN "Bernie"

Halfback

Bernie's speed and ability made him a man to be watched. On offensive he not only hit the line hard but never failed to get his man in interference. His ability will prove a great asset to the team next year.

WALLACE HARPER "Wallie"

Fullback

Wallie was a smashing fullback. He was a sure ground gainer and backed the line up in great style. The youngest member on the squad, he nevertheless received honorable mention on the All State team. Bigger things are expected from this scrappy fullback next year.

EMMETT MOWRY "Shorty"

Half

Shifty is right when you think of Mowry, for he is that on both his feet. Full of pep and a hard fighter he showed marked ability in running the ends and receiving passes. He is lost by graduation.

HARLAN PARKS "Harley"

Quarterback

Harlan Parks, along with Reedquist, was the only player with experience. Around him the team was built. It was his pep, fight, hard hitting that won him the respect of the whole student body and town. Harley was the only player on the squad to play every minute of the season. His ability to keep the team fighting every minute and his leadership will be missed next year, as, to the sorrow of all, Harlan graduates.

NORMAN SWENSON "Swede"

Guard

Much to the sorrow of the opposing teams, this big guard was sure to be in every play. He fought with the skill, courage and determination of his Viking ancestors and made an ideal running mate for Reedquist. Swede will be sorely missed in the games next year.

DONALD WILSON "Don"

Tackle

Don was a Goliath in the line on both offense and defense. With irrepressible pep and energy he played a wonderful game throughout the season. He will be a valuable man next year.

LAFAYETTE DUPY "Lafy"

End

Dupy was often called upon to fill the end position. When he was in the game he played as though his life depended on it. Watch him next year.

LAWRENCE NELSON "Olie"

End

For consistency, hard plugging, dependable football, "Olie" has the best of them stopped. Injuries kept him out of several games but he is a player who can be depended on for greater things next year.

MERWYN PARKS "Pete"

End

Pete playing his first year of football, developed steadily throughout the season. He was exceptionally good at breaking up end runs and on the receiving end of forward passes his keen eye and sticky fingers netted several yards for O. H. S. He should be one of the mainstays of next years team.

HOMER WOLF "Wolf"

Guard

Homer was a hard worker and served as a good utility man in several games. His weight and skill combined with his faithfulness earned for him the much coveted letter. He will be left for next year.

LYLE FISHER "Fish"

End

In his first year on the gridiron Lyle earned his letter at end. Sickness in early season prevented him from showing his real abilities. He will be with us next year.

DONALD FOSTER "Don"

Guard

Don at guard more than made up in fight what he lacked in size. He was an aggressive player and always let his opponents know it when he was in the game. He will be left for next year's team.

JOHN HURD "Whitey"

Center

Whitey playing center position passed the ball back with unerring aim. He was a hard worker and a scrapper and delivered the goods called on. John receives his diploma in June.

FOOTBALL SEASON'S REVIEW

UNADORNED statistics covering the 1924 football season do not present encouraging totals to the Ottumwa fans. Winning only one out of a total of eight games played, the Ottumwa team plunged to a new depth of gridiron disaster.

A closer study of the season however, throws a more cheerful light upon the football year than the preceeding statement would seem to reveal. To understand the past season one must appreciate the fact that Coach Yount had to build his team around but two letter men, neither of great experience. Outside of the Cedar Rapids and Davenport games no team was able to do any promiscuous scoring against Yount's defense. This defensive strength showed itself in the Cedar Rapids game when the national-famed Tigers had extreme difficulty in getting two touchdowns in three quarters against the fighting bulldogs. Again in the final game of the season with our old rival, Oskaloosa, who lost but one game during their whole season, the visitors found themselves at the end of the game dazedly hanging on to a one point victory. In this and also the Fairfield game the squad showed a brand of aggressive never-say-die football, which promises well for next year's team, when they have gained a little more football experience and gridiron knowledge.

1925 BASKET BALL TEAM

Top Row—Harper, Steinhoff, LaFollette, Swanson, Douma.

Middle Row—Tiede, Reedquist, Wagner, Clark, Nelson, Brody.

GROVES

Guard and captain of Ottumwa's basketball team for 1924-1925.

The eight semester rule ended Groves' brilliant basketball career in O. H. S. with the Mt. Pleasant game. He fitted in and filled his position so completely on the team that he won the complete confidence of every basketball fan. He received honorable mention on the All-State quintette and made the Little Six All-Conference team. He handled himself and his team in a most accredited manner, always urging them on with words of advice and encouragement. We lost a worthy athlete and leader when he was graduated.

SHEA

Shea was a forward that was never backward when it comes to playing basketball. He is a hardworker, a bear both on offense and defense. As for shooting baskets we all know that Jim has an eye for the hoop that few other players have. He has been the big point winner for the team throughout the season, and this year's successful basketball record is due greatly to his efforts. We will be extremely fortunate in having him with us next year.

SHEEHAN

Playing opposite Shea and thus completing the Irish duet, Bernie's eagle eye gave his opponents plenty of trouble. His long suit was floor work and his dribbling was next to impossible to stop. Though the smallest man in stature, Bernie was one of the biggest point makers the team had. Always going at high speed Bernie made a hard man to guard and slipped in a great many baskets which surprised his opposing team mates. We are now looking forward to next year, when we know that he will again be one of the mainstays of the team.

JOE WAGNER

As one of the principle cogs in Ottumwa's basketball team, Joe pulled down the position of All-State Center. He was known throughout the state as "Ottumwa's six-footer who could outjump and outplay any center he played against." His floor work was unsurpassed and his accurate passing was the big feature of his playing. His basket shooting combined with the defensive work made him a menace to all opposing teams and also made him a favorite with Ottumwans and basketball critics. Joe's place on the team will be a hard one to fill, both from a player's standpoint and from the school's standpoint. His playing was always clean, but hard, and results were sure whether he was guarding or shooting for a basket. We are justly proud of you Joe.

VINCENT

Running mate for "Biggie" was "Diz" Vincent who also in the absence of Wagner held down the center position, you could depend on him to always execute his part of the battle and at all time put forth his best efforts for the team and O. H. S. He was an extremely fast man, good at basket shooting and equally as efficient on defense. As a center he followed close on the heels of Joe in the jumping business and held down the guard position to the entire satisfaction of the whole school. Diz should add greatly to his reputation next year.

REEDQUIST

Holding down the guard position, "Biggy" played a great and consistent game throughout the entire season. His work showed an adaptibility that won for him Honorable Mention on the All-State team. He has a fighting spirit that is hard to beat and a faculty of breaking up plays as fast as they are brought into his territory. "Biggie" is not only noted for his defensive work but also for his ability in registering free throws and not infrequently helping himself to a field goal. The team will look awfully unnatural without you next year, "Biggie."

HARPER

Wallie, though playing but a very few games, was always on deck when needed. His greatest ability was his speed and quick work in breaking up plays which when combined with his fighting spirit and team-work made him a very valuable man and a credit to the Ottumwa High School. He can be counted on next year to add to the glory of the school.

STEINHOFF

"Stiny" like Wallie, played in but a few games but he made some of the other players step lively to hold their places. He could always be depended upon to get his share of the baskets thus being a valuable cog in the scoring machine. He has shown himself to be a real aspirant for a steady job at forward position next season. We regret that we were unable to print an individual picture of Earl.

SWANSON

"Swanie" gained the reputation of being one of the shiftiest and speediest dribblers that has appeared on the Ottumwa basketball team for some time. His team work made possible a great many points that should have been accredited to him. We would have undoubtedly seen him in action a great deal more had he not been eliminated by the eight semester rule.

CLARK

This prolonged gentleman held down the center position during the first semester, then he was taken from the quintet by the eight semester ruling. His height was of great advantage both on offense and defense and he always proved a valuable part of the combination. We lost a good man in Tom.

BRODY

Another victim of the eight semester rule. Although not big in stature "Breezy" was a real running guard and had he but had the rest of the season to continue his steady improvement he would have undoubtedly have made even greater honors for O. H. S. He featured regularly with brilliant offensive and defensive play from his guard position.

NELSON

In our opinion "Guard" was Ollie's middle name. His work at the guard position this year showed an adaptability that will certainly place him on the regulars next year. In his defensive work he kept his opposing forwards from acquiring any note as basket shooters. We are grateful to him for it.

BASKETBALL REVIEW

WHEN Coach Yount issued the first call for basketeers some sixty men answered. By gradual elimination the squad was cut to about fifteen of the most likely candidates. The real work then began, the science of the game was learned, the basket eye put in trim, and condition was developed. Captain Irwin Groves, the only letter man left from last year's team, was used as a nucleus around which Coach Yount built a machine which we might rightfully term as one of the most successful basketball teams ever produced in the history of Ottumwa High.

Early season games with Muscatine and the Alumni demonstrated to the Ottumwa fans that they had a wonderful team to back during the rest of the season. From the very beginning the spirit and backing of the student body was far superior to previous seasons. No little part of this year's successful record can be attributed to the encouragement given by the students of O. H. S. The climax of the early season games came with a well-earned victory over the much touted aggregation from Cedar Rapids.

Basketball stock took a sudden drop at the end of the first semester, however, when Groves, Swanson, Clark and Brody were eliminated by the eight semester ruling. Minus the services of these valuable players the team dropped two hard fought games, one to our ancient rival, Fairfield and another to Morgan Park, Chicago. However, this gloom was soon broken by the appearance of a Goliath in our midst in the person of Joe Wagner who soon became the basketball idol of every loyal student and townsman.

He was first seen in action in the Burlington game when we sought vengeance for a former early season defeat from the down-river warriors. In this game the team hit and retained their stride and won nine of the remaining eleven games played.

On March the sixth and seventh the team went to the state sectional tournament held at Albia. They were accompanied by about four hundred loyal supporters in spite of the fact that they were previously warned that there would be no seats available for them, and they virtually swamped the Albia Hen Coop, alias gymnasium. In the first round of the tournament we met the famed Dallas giants and administered to them their first defeat of the season. Two more games were played with Lovilla and Chariton in which Ottumwa outfought and outscored their opponents, thus winning the sectional tournament and the right to compete in the district tournament at Oskaloosa the following week.

During the week following the Albia tournament, studies were laid aside and the entire thoughts of the student body seemed to be directed toward the Osky tournament. However, on the day of the tournament our spirits were dampened by an untimely rain that made the roads impassible and forced many reluctant students back to the classrooms. In spite of this fact, however, the team had little difficulty in winning their first game of the tourney from Centerville. This placed us in the semi-finals with Burlington, and needless to say Kelley's aggregation were bent on revenge. In a game which was hard fought, close and full of thrills the Bulldogs snatched the victory when Joe connected with the hoop with a long shot only a few seconds before the game ended, again defeating the Little Six Champs. With less than three hours rest the team was again forced on the floor to meet Osky's fast and much reputed quintet in the final game of the tournament. Only those who witnessed this game can appreciate fully the wonderful spirit and fight displayed by our team. It was a great battle from start to finish, being anybody's game until the final gun. Presenting a practically airtight defense the Red and White warriors put up their hardest fought game of the season. With the score tied fourteen, all the effects of the Burlington game told, and twenty seconds later the 1925 basketball season became history and found Oskaloosa on the big end of a 16 to 14 score.

Beginning with practically no experienced material and losing four men at the end of the semester, Coach Yount developed a team that never knew when to stop fighting.

Twenty games played with fourteen victories, finishing second in the Little Six Conference, administering the only defeat to the Champions, placing in the finals of the district tournament, honored with an all-state center and two men receiving honorable mention, and manifesting a spirit that could not be broken, are a few of the attributes that constitute the record of the 1925 basketball season.

We are now looking forward to another winning team next winter. To replace the men lost by graduation will take lots of hard work and lots of fight, but watch us. We say—watch us!

Middle Row—Morris, Lovell, Mathews, Fisher, Page.

WRESTLING

DUE to the lack of experienced material our wrestling record was not quite as successful as it has been in the last few years. Coach Page was confronted with the difficult task of producing a team from boys who had never before been coached in the technique of wrestling. In view of this fact the season was a creditable one. Two dual meets were staged on the home floor. In the first one we completely shut out our old rivals, Oskaloosa, but succumbed to a defeat from the veteran Marshalltown grapplers. The team was entered in the state meet where it won four points by Don Wilson taking third in the 175 pound class and Bruce Rogers a second in the 135 pound class. Letters were awarded to Wilson, Rogers, Boyde and F. Chickering. Practically the entire team will be available next year and with the experience gained this year much is expected from them.

TRACK

O. H. S. opened an extensive track season for 1924 by entering six meets. Captain Gerald Vincent, half miler, was the outstanding star of the season, always the first to break the tape on his own race.

The Kansas Relays at Lawrence, Kansas, was the first meet of the season in which the Red and Whites were entered. Our two mile relay team, composed of Captain Vincent, Herman, Cecconi and Wilson placed third against teams of record breaking caliber.

The team next went to the Drake Relays at Des Moines, where they won first in the two mile relay, third in the Medley relay and third in the two mile National Championship relay.

The following week-end, the team entered the Tri-State meet at Fairfield and tied for third in total points scored in the meet. Capt. Vincent took first in the half mile high jump and third in the high hurdles. Jack Harris won the 440, Herman took second in the half mile and Wilson and Cecconi placed second and third respectively in the mile. The Relay team won the Medley Race in excellent time.

The team next journeyed to Grinnel Invitation Meet. Vincent repeated his victories in the high jump and half mile and Herman and Harris received bronze medals in the mile and 440. In this meet the team was entered in the mile relay and on the event.

In the State meet on May 17, the team gained 11 points by Captain Vincent again winning the half mile and placing fourth in the high jump and Jack Harris won first place in the 440.

The climax of the season came when our Captain Diz Vincent gained national fame by winning the half mile in the National meet at Chicago, thus ending his high school track career in a whirlwind fashion.

Those receiving letters were Capt. Vincent, Brody, Wilcox, Harris, Edwards, Gilbert, Cecconi and Herman.

1925 PROSPECTS

As in basketball and football, Coach Yount is again confronted with the tremendous task of building a team out of almost entirely new material; but the wealth of material available, together with the untiring efforts and exceeding eagerness to have a winning and successful team, the season of 1925 should be a repetition of the glories of 1924.

LAURA MAUDE NORRIS

Nothing need be said about Miss Norris' ability as a physical director—her department speaks for itself—and she is pep personified.

We only wish to add that she can always be assured of the friendship of the student body of O. H. S.

HAZEL ELIZABETH ORTH

Graduate from University of California, Berkley

Although Miss Orth has not been with us long, we already consider her a valuable addition to our Athletic force. The students are both glad and proud to know that she will be with us next year.

"She's made a hit with us."

GIRLS ATHLETICS

FORTY O. H. S. girls started something new this semester when they organized a Volley-Ball Team. In this way girls may help win their "O" by the point system. All of the forty girls are at practice twelve times a semester, thus gaining fifty points. The girls who make a class team and are out 12 practices get 75 points.

Officers

ALICE EDGINGTON, Business Manager
 MARGUERITE STOESSEL, Freshman Captain
 JEAN MCINN, Sophomore Captain
 LOUISE FINDLAY, Junior Captain
 GERTRUDE TYLER, Senior Captain

With these capable girls at the head, the teams battled the first week in December for the championship.

First Game—Freshmen vs. Seniors—Seniors won by a large score.

Second Game—Sophomores vs. Juniors—Sophomores won by a close score.

Final Game—Seniors vs. Sophomores—This was a very exciting game. First the Sophomores were ahead, but the 1925 girls regained all their pep and won, at last, by a large score.

Fine work Seniors!

THE "O" CLUB

THIS club was organized by the Basket Ball team of 1924,3. The only girls that were left from last year that were members of the Southern Iowa Champs are "Al" and "Ede." "Shoe-strings" won her "O" last year by the famous point system that was originated last year.

YELL LEADERS

WHO are these lively looking individuals? These are our yell leaders, of course. Every peppy student who has attended the games and pep meetings knows that these yell leaders helped more than anything else to instill enthusiasm into the student body. They have worked untiringly and unselfishly in the interests of O. H. S. and will be sorely missed next year.

INDUSTRY

Hall's Chocolates are so good that they defy description. Their richness, their perfect flavor and smoothness—these are but a few of the reasons that have made Hall's a familiar candy buy-word for many years.

TEASE THE TASTE

ALMOST a hundred years have rolled by since the founder of John Morrell & Co. began the production of Hams and Bacon.

Something in the recipe by which "Morrell's Pride" Hams and Bacon are prepared and cured makes them so tempting that their popularity lives on and on.

Their superior quality and matchless flavor have been enjoyed by people of this and foreign countries for many decades past. You will surely like them.

Your Store

DONELAN'S—the favorite store of your mother—and, perhaps your mother's mother, now stands better prepared than ever before to supply the apparel needs of the up-to-date Miss.

Donelan's, where "Youth" is served supreme! Here you will find smart apparel, whether a coat, dress, blouse, footwear, hosiery, gloves, etc.; full of girlish chic, some artfully simple—others richly elegant but every creation expressive of youth and charm, which deserves the unreserved admiration of the Miss who appreciates individuality.

The W. J. Donelan Co. joins hands with the well wishers of success for the class of 1925.

Shoes Are Like Folks

A well dressed appearance is a badge of success or a stepping stone to prosperity.

Shoes contribute just as much to a well-dressed appearance as clothes do. Shoes are like folks—to keep their good looks and wear well, they must have quality.

Stevens Shoes have contributed to the better appearance of Ottumwans for years. You will be much better satisfied with yourself when you, too, wear Stevens' Shoes.

Joe Miller: "I wear patent leather shoes."

Milton Worthen: "How's that?"

Joe Miller: "The uppers are leather and my feet are pattin' the ground."

Bettina Inskeep: "How much would you give for a kiss in the dark?"

Bob Ferguson: "I've been used to getting them free."

Bettina Inskeep (crying): "Brute."

Miss Graham: "Ralph, do you understand French?"

Ralph Sweeney: "Yes, if it's spoken in Irish."

Charles Strang: "That rouge certainly looks natural. I thought for a long time that it was really your skin."

L. Whitmore: "Well, it is the next thing to it."

Ede Wilson: "I want a pair of shoe laces."

Clerk: "How long miss?"

Ede: "I don't know, but I wear a size 10 shoe."

Ma Ferguson (proudly): "This is my son Robert, Mrs. Higgins. Isn't he a bright chap?"

Bob (accustomed to being shown off in public): "Oh, yes, what was that clever thing I said yesterday, mother?"

Miss Orth: "Can you swim very well?"

Prep: "No, Ma'am, but I sure can wade."

Blossom: "Why did you give up pipe-organ lessons?"

Mary Beth: "I felt so childish playing with my feet."

"THE INFERNO WITH DANTE"
"Oh, come with me," said Dante,
"For a little jaunt thro' hell.
We'll see the lost souls gamboling,
And find out why they fell."

So I went with him gladly,
Where the dammed ones howl and moan.
"Of course," giggled Dante, "a Freshie
Could really get here alone."

Below the region flunkers,
Where the sulphurs sizzle and reek,
Fried the Sophomore who called on a
Senior
When he hadn't shaved for a week.

Next came an army of borrowers—
The people who came to class late—
And the poor benighted heathen,
Who forgets to keep a date.

And there in the very hottest place
Choked by a sulphurous cloud,
Fried and burned and boiled the guys,
Who read sub-titles out loud.

Father: "Well, Clark, getting some pretty good grades?"
"Ducky" T.: "Well, none you couldn't pull with a Ford."

Ed Love (frantically, over phone):
"I've just turned turtle."

Voice (from other end): "Wrong number. Apply at the aquarium."

Cop to Flora Knight: "Someone called up police headquarters reporting that a guy named Schubert is being murdered in here."

Policeman to noisy disturber: "Come on, you're going to accompany me."

Ed Bonnifield: "Awright, Offishre, what'll we sing?"

(Found on the front page of Harper's notebook):

I stole a kiss the other night;
My conscience hurt, alack!
I think I'll have to go tonight
And give the nice thing back.

Prep: "Some vegetables surely are large."

Soph: "How so?"

Prep: "I've seen three or four policemen asleep on a single beat."

The new and unusual—that sparkling reality which is known as the life of each school year—is caught and held forever within the pages of Bureau built annuals. The ability to assist in making permanent such delightful bits of class spontaneity rests in an organization of creative artists guided by some 17 years of College Annual work, which experience is the knowledge of balance and taste and the fitness of doing things well. In the finest year books of American Colleges the sincerity and genuineness of Bureau Engraving quality instantly impresses one. They are class records that will live forever.
